1. Hebrews 3 introduces us to need to encourage one another. Can you think of a time in your life when someone provided some biblical encouragement that helped you avoid making a bad decision or choosing to sin? What did they do or say that caused you to listen to their input?
2. The deception of sin has been a constant throughout history. Every human has struggled with sin's ability to deceive us starting with Adam and Eve. Read Joshua 7:20-21 and James 1:13-15. What similarities do you see in the example of Achan with James' description of the process of sin? What differences? What can we learn from these 2 passages that could help us avoid the pitfalls of deception?

Do you know of someone today that is struggling with sin's deception. What truth could you learn from these 2 passages that could help you encourage this person? What warning might you give them?

3. Read Philippians 2:1-4 in a few translations. What attitudes and actions can you identify? How could each one of the attitudes/actions serve to help create a community where we can be genuinely known, lovingly supported and honestly challenged?

Which attitude or action found in this passage do you think is most important for creating an encouraging community?

Which attitude or action found in this passage is hardest for you to maintain or put into practice?

4. Pastor David made this statement to wrap up this message. "Growing in obedience to God happens in the mundane experiences of life over a long period of time, often without immediate gratification for our effort." Do you agree or disagree? Why? How have you seen this truth lived out in your life?
